August is here and I am back to school and making kits! I have delved into piping a bit more (are you surprised?), and am now having my own Petite Piping Cord manufactured for me. It comes in a ball and is at a much better price, which is great for all of you!

The American Sewing Guild confernece in Indianapolis (July) was great! It was in downtown Indy and as always, a wonderful group of sewers were there! I was also at Costume College and as last year, I was floored by all of the costumes! It is truly eye candy!!!

I also have another couple of fabric finds - a cute, cute, cute navy gingham that has tiny hearts and polka dots, and a nice lining for coats and jackets - it is white with tiny pink polka dots. I like to give my insides a pop of color and this is perfect -for children or adults!

One of our members has passed away and I will be clearing out her sewing things. Some of her things will be going to SAGA (I am making a couple of raffle baskets for convention - she had a copy of Elizabeth Travis Johnson's Heirloom Sewing for Children book, along with various other things, and some OOP Children's Corner patterns. If you are interested in taking a chance on the book (which is a great source of information), make sure you get raffle tickets!

In this newsletter, I will be starting wiith some of her Imperial Batiste and Broadcloth fabrics.

Hope to see you soonn - if you are going to the SAGA convention, be sure to stop by and say hello!

Happy Stitching,
Vaune

This lightweight lining fabric gives a pop of color (and puts a smile on your face when you open your jacket) to add interest to your garments. The white with pink polka dots will go perfectly with almost any solid, and with quite a few prints as well. This is my 2nd fabric find for this newsletter . It is a perfect stash fabric, for when you finally get around to making that jacket!

This usually retails for $10/yd and I have it for $6/yard .

Introducing my new

I am having this manufactured myself and just received my first shipment! It comes in wound balls that have approx. 110 yards . I played around with it last night - I made some orange gingham piping and some green polka dot piping, and it was lovely!!! Even better, because I am having this manufactured myself, I can pass the savings on to you! The 110yd ball is only $5.00

The DOVO Double Serrated Scissors

have arrived and I am in the process of sending them out. If you ordered a pair, be on the lookout at your mailbox!

A Special from DOVO

When DOVO does a special order, the requirement is usually Q=150 pair (which is why I have not had them make serrated 7" scissors).

A customer had placed an order for these 4" scissors and there were a few left over, which I promptly said I would take! This is a 4" scissor with large bows (finger holes), like a weaver's scissor, and BOTH of the blades are serrated!

Reg. $69, Newsletter special is $58
Supply on these is limited, so when these are gone..... :(

Fall School at Children's Corner...

Emily Elizabeth

An Inverted Pleat Dress and Cape

At the close of summer, we all wait for crisp evenings that chilly morning air. Even though the temperatures may still be warm, we look forward to wearing our fall outfits! Fall Fun is a cute little princess seam dress with a dash of Liberty for a fun accent. The dress is designed using a soft pinwale corduroy, which is perfect for fall weather, as well as winter and early spring. Liberty of London lawn is used to add a pop of color to the outfit in the inverted pleats, the sleeves, the collar and the piping. The short sleeves are created using a center pleat and the dress buttons down the back. Bullion daisies with French knot centers are added to the front belt to add a touch of elegance. To finish the outfit is a classic lined wool cape with a fun lining. Bullion daisies also adorn the cape on the collar and the welt openings. Classic with a pop of color, this outfit will be a favorite!
